Policy 2.120

Board Member Development

- The board is responsible for board member orientation and development.
- The Board President and/or Superintendent shall provide all Board members with information regarding pertinent education materials, publications, and notices of training or development.
- The Board of Education desires that its individual members learn, understand and practice effective governance principles.
- Board members have an equal opportunity to attend state and national meetings designed to familiarize members with public school issues, governance, and legislation.

The First 100 Days

- Meeting with Superintendent and Board President – Find out the goals, priorities, talents and connections of the new trustee.
- Individual board members reach out with a note or phone call.
- Arrange school site visits to introduce the new trustee to faculty, staff and students.
- Give new member(s) the opportunity to comment on shared core beliefs and values with entire board (board self-evaluation).

What you should expect...

- The “Why” “What” and “How” of a Board orientation process
- The purpose and uses of the school board member’s handbook

The Board takes responsibility for itself

The board seeks continuity of leadership, even as it experiences turnover in membership. The board accomplishes this by using written board policies to guide board operations, by providing thorough orientation and training for all members, and by nurturing a positive and inviting board culture.
